Antitrust authority approves Siemens as equity partner in A2SEA

13 October 2010

On June 29 2010 it was announced that Siemens would become equity partner in offshore wind park installation specialist A2SEA A/S.

The investment has now been approved by the German antitrust authority and is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2010.

The information provided in this announcement will not change DONG Energy's previous financial guidance for the financial year 2010 or the expected investment level.
