Doro increases network availability for the PhoneEasy® 612 in the UK

Doro is pleased to announce that its PhoneEasy® 612 is now available through Orange and T-Mobile in the UK market, in addition to other retailers and networks in the UK such as Carphone Warehouse, O2 and Argos.

"The listing of the Doro PhoneEasy® 612 continues our strong relationship with the Orange and T-Mobile brands. As this handset features more functionality, including a camera, we can reach a much wider audience", says Chris Millington, Managing Director of Doro UK and Ireland in a comment.

The Doro PhoneEasy® 612 is a stylish clamshell mobile. This handset features an easy-to-use camera so that special moments with family and friends can be captured and shared at the touch of a button. It is remarkably easy-to-use with its extra loud and clear sound, excellent hearing aid compatibility, adjustable text size, one touch direct dials, SMS and camera buttons and an easy-to-navigate menu system.
