

IT – INET Nordic – Adjustment to Continuous Trading hours for Certificates and Exchange Traded Notes on Nasdaq Copenhagen (8/15)

Nasdaq Nordic is planning to align the start of Continuous Trading for Certificates and Exchange Traded Notes on Nasdaq Copenhagen to that of Certificates and Exchange Traded Notes on Nasdaq Helsinki and Nasdaq Stockholm. This will mean that Certificates and Exchange Traded Notes on Nasdaq Copenhagen will start Continuous Trading at 09:00:30 CET, instead of current 09:00 CET. Opening Call uncross will take place at 09:00:30 CET instead of current 09:00 CET.

This change has been requested by Market Makers. The start of Continuous Trading at 09:00:30 CET aims to ensure that the first prices in the order book are the Market Maker's quoted prices. The change to the schedule for Certificates and Exchange Traded Notes on Nasdaq Copenhagen is planned to be launched in production on March 9, 2015 and it will be available for testing in INET OTF and GCF4 as of February 9, 2015.
