Doro strengthens Group management with new VP Operations

Carl-Johan Rijpma has been appointed as new Vice President Operations and member of Group management. He will assume his position on November 1.

Carl-Johan Rijpma has extensive experience of supply chain management. He is currently working in a position as Supply Chain Developer at Inter IKEA Group, and has previously had leading positions within sourcing and logistics at Sony Mobile and Gambro, among others. Carl-Johan Rijpma is Master of Science in Engineering and Logistics and Bachelor of Science in Business and Economics.

"I am happy to be able to welcome Carl-Johan Rijpma as new Vice President Operations at Doro. We work hard to increase efficiency in our supply chain, and I am convinced that Carl-Johan with his solid background will be instrumental in raising the level additionally. I also want to thank Ulf Fredriksson, who has managed operations temporarily, for a job well done", says Robert Puskaric, President and CEO of Doro.
