

Cision's newswire distribution service subject to fraudulent press release

Files a complaint with the police authorities

Cision has made a preliminary investigation of the event this morning where a fraudulent press release was distributed. This investigation shows that the company has followed its procedures and has been subject to a sophisticated fraud. As a consequence, Cision has decided to turn over the case to the police for further investigation of criminal offence.

For further information please contact: Magnus Thell, VD Cision Sverige AB, 0708-950 822