TrustBuddy; Norwegian investor, Arne Fredly, invests SEK 26m into TrustBuddy's P2P Lending Platform

TrustBuddy is proud to welcome one of the most famous Norwegian investors, former trader and hedge fund founder Arne H Fredly, to its P2P Lending capital base. Mr. Fredly is known to be risk-averse and very careful with his investments, but after close dialogue with TrustBuddy through the past weeks Mr. Fredly initially deposits SEK 26m to TrustBuddy as P2P Lending capital, with a minimum duration of 12 months (this is part of the original transaction of SEK 165m which was made public Sunday the 24th of November).

TrustBuddy Founder and CEO Jens Glasø comments:

"We're pleased about being recognized by financial wizards such as Mr. Fredly, and see a steadily increasing flow of interest from investors at this level. We expect this to be a tell-tale sign that other high net-worth individuals are beginning to move into the great investment alternative P2P Lending markets are. Welcoming Mr. Fredly to the company has been a pleasure, and is a good indication of what lies ahead in the future of the company and in the future of the P2P industry".
